Don't forget to call on Carson & Morton for a good old drink.

Money can be saved by buying your groceries from Carson & Morton.

The Davison County Teachers' Institute will meet at Owensboro, August the 4th.

The L. St. L. & T. Railroad has bought the Louisville, Hardinsburgh and Western.

The Methodist Church at Fordville will shortly erect a comfortable church building at that place.

Carson & Morton are still in the lead with a well selected stock of groceries, as cheap as the cheapest.

The splendid condition of the Bank of Hartford is shown by its statement which we print in another column today.

Mrs. Janie Shultz, of near Prentiss, was adjudged a lunatic yesterday, and will be conveyed to Hopkinsville at once.

The Hartford String Band has purchased a fine new violin, and is preparing to make music for any kind of an occasion.

Privileges to sell refreshments, &c., at the Owensboro Fair grounds this year have been let to Owensboro parties, the prices paid being $1,750.

Don't fail to read the advertisement of the grand picnic to be given at the Milton Taylor farm on July 29th, 1891, by C. A. & Sylvester Bryant.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. T.
D. Hopkins, charged with bigamy, was called Saturday, and owing to the absence of witnesses the case was continued until next Friday.

A grand barbecue will be given at Beaver Dam next Saturday by Walker Kahn, Edward Nall, John Duvall and Cris Taylor, of color. A good time is assured all who may attend.

The young ladies of the C. P. Church will give an Ice Cream supper at the court house, Friday night. Proceeds to buy a bell for their church. Everybody is invited to be present.

Mr. John L. Wilson, of Nelson, Nebraska, and Mrs. Lena Martin, of Springfield, Ky., were married at the home of the latter last week. They had never met until an hour before the marriage, having conducted their courtship by correspondence.

Mr. J. H. Fulkerson, living near Echols, fell from a fence last week and broke his right arm near the wrist and was otherwise severely injured. At last accounts he was getting on well toward recovery.

"Millie, the Quail", will be played by the young people of McHenry at the school house Thursday evening, July 23d. Admission: adults 25c; children 10c. Proceeds to go to the ladies aid society.

Rev. B. F. Swindler, for many years pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist Church in Owensboro, has been called to the pastorate of the church at Covington. He will go to his new work about August 1st.

When, if ever, our city dais goes down to repair the sidewalk? Is it not better to do it now than to wait till some one breaks a rib as many have come near doing, and every pedestrian is at any time liable to do so?

In a general fight at Island last week between Bud Hefflin, Wm. Joslen and Mike Kellar took part. Hefflin was hit with a heavy blow and his arm broken and Joslen was badly cut with a razor. The parties were drunk. They were heavily fined for their unfortunate frolic.

The colored people have a large tent stretched in the field in front of Dr.
Pendleton's, and are having a series of out-door meetings, which promise to be very interesting. Large crowds are in attendance each evening and the singing and preaching are being very much enjoyed.

Will Midkiff, of color, was arrested yesterday, and tried before his Hon.
Judge A. B. Baird, for disturbing religious worship at the Camp Meeting grounds Monday night. The jury found a verdict of guilty and fixed his fine at $20, and also said in their verdict if the amount was not paid or repaid, it was to be paid at hard labor, on the streets or public highways.

Owensboro has elected Prof. James McGinnis, of Newport, Ky., Superintendent and W. C. Warfield, of Eureka, Ill., Principal of her public schools, to succeed A. C. Goodwin and W. A. Hester respectively. Of these last named, it is known that Prof. Hester, who has for nine years been the working head of the schools, and who is one of the best school men the State ever had, will go to Evansville where he has a desirable and lucrative place. Prof.
Goodwin will conduct a boy's school in Owensboro.

Cedar Grove Stock Farm, Mr. J. T. Mook, of Danville, says, "I can cheerfully recommend Quinn's Ointment to all horsemen as the very best remedy in use, would not be without it." For Cuts, Splints, Spavins, Wounds, or any enlargements give it a trial.

THE BALL.

Hartford's Young People Meet at the Court House and Enjoy Themselves Hugely.

One of the most enjoyable affairs of the season was the ball at the court house Saturday night last. After the week of toil and heat, the young people of Hartford came together and forgot all their labors in the pleasure of the dance, encouraged and stimulated by the Hartford String Band which is composed of Messrs. George Phillips, Marvin Bean and Cecil Sanders. The dance was given in honor of the charming young lady visitors, who are: Miss Brian, of Paducah; Miss Bush, Elizabeth; Miss Thomas, Bowling Green; Miss Shadburn, Eastwood; Miss Cates, Henderson; Misses Lamar, Crane and Smith, Owensboro. When the hands of the trusty old court house clock pointed to a quarter to twelve, everybody departed for home, feeling it was good to be there. The following is a list of young ladies and gentlemen in attendance: Miss Maggie Eiden, Carrollton; Miss Beattie Eiden, Paducah; Miss Mary Bush, Elizabeth; Miss Fannie Thomas, Bowling Green; Miss Mattie Shadburn, Eastwood; Misses Irene Lamar, Mary Craig and Virgie Smith, Owensboro; Miss Pearl Joplin, Elizabeth; Miss Sallie Cate, Henderson; Misses Ida Duke, Stella Thomas, Lizzie and Laura Chapize, Mary and Ella Cox, Maggie Hardwick, Mary Nall, Lizzie Moore, Nannie Massie, Jessie Mosely, Julia Pendleton and Eva Horton, Dr. E. B. Pendleton and wife, Hartford; Dr. J. P. Williams and Mr. W. Newitt, Owensboro; Messrs.
C. W. Parrott and John Barrows, Beaver Dam; I. S. Mason and W. Hollbrook, Burlington; L. T. Layman and Harry Meredith, Lettichfield; S. A. Anderson, Jno.
J. and Lem McHenry, J. E. Stevens, O. J. Thomas, Dr. J. H. White, Henry Hardwick and J. H. Carson, Hartford; Mrs. James A. Thomas, S. K. Cox, Jennie Mosely, Sallie Hardwick and May Aull, Hartford, Ky.

Fire at Fordville.
The only hotel at Fordville, the Howard House, was totally destroyed by fire Tuesday, the 17th inst.

The fire originated in a defective flue and a short time after its discovery, which was 7:30 at night, the whole building was in flames. A strong light was made by the citizens who responded to the call for help, but nothing could be done to save the building. The contents were taken out, but much of the furniture was badly injured. The loss was heavy, not only to Mr. Howard, but to the town. The house had just been completed at a cost of $3,000 and was a splendid hotel building for the size of the town. The building was insured for $2,000 and its furniture for $1,000. Mr. Howard says he will not rebuild.

For Fifteen Days Only.
I will remain in Hartford for fifteen days more. After July 22nd, I will go to my home gallery at Shelbyville, Tenn.
Any one wishing fine photographs in every respect, must have the work done before that day. I am thankful to the public for the patronage I have received while here, and I hope to be able to place pictures in every home in this community. Pictures taken in any kind of weather. I have a nice lot of frames for cabinet and larger sized pictures which I will sell at cost. Respectfully, C. F. FILLIS,
Photographic Artist,
Hartford, Ky.

Hon. E. E. McKay, of Bardstown, will speak in Hartford, Ky., on Wednesday, July 22d, in opposition to the new Constitution and in concerning the political issues of the day. Let no voter who wants to hear the Constitution discussed fail to hear him.

The Picnic.
The picnic at the Fair grounds Saturday, was enjoyed by a fairly good crowd. Many had seen the advertising men of the races in the Herald, and came in to enjoy the sport, which was thoroughly appreciated. The most interesting part of the day's sport was the game of ball between the Hartford and McHenry teams. These two doughty bodies had crossed bats before and luck had been against the McHenry boys, but they came over this time to win and they did handsomely in a score of 15 to 2.

The two teams were each a patchwork, Hartford being assisted by Ro-sine and Lettichfield, and McHenry by Taylor Mines. Both teams played a first-rate game considering their varied and unknown composition, but the Hartford boys were not in it. However, they have not given it up, but say they will yet show the champions how to play ball.

DECLINE IN PRICES.
Cash, and Monday morning settlements must be met promptly in the future at
J. W. Ford & Co's.

A Card.
HARTFORD, Ky., July 12, 1891.
EDITORS HERALD:—We wish to call attention to one of the noble (?) acts of our county Wheel, which met at this place last Friday and Saturday. It seems that it is the object, or one of the objects at least, of this order to sell everything at the highest and purchase at the lowest possible price. They do not seem to believe in this little old saying, "live and let others live." While they are striving to suppress grinding monopolies, they are willing to almost take bread out of the mouths of the widow and orphan. As an example of this we give herewith a report of a committee on good of the order but which could
